PERFORMANCES AND SPECIAL PROJECTS

- 2012 Swerve Space: Open Rehearsal, C-Space, Richmond, VA.
 Swerve Space was a collaboration between myself and VCU Dance Faculty Scott Putman. In November 2012, we hosted a 3-hour long open studio where we invited the community to watch 2 performances of a dance piece created for four local dancers, followed by a Q&A session and a chance to view/explore the dance set.
- 2010 Have I Told You Lately That I Love You, Clutch Gallery, Chicago, IL.
 Clutch Gallery is a mobile exhibition space created and “performed” by Chicago-based artist Meg Duguid. During my one-month exhibition, Have I Told You Lately That I Love You was surreptitiously on view at Art Chicago, Chicago’s annual international contemporary art fair, as well as various locations throughout the city of Chicago.
- 2003 The Outlaw Series, New York, NY.
 Curated by Lisa Kirk. The Outlaw Series was a guerilla-style exhibition that featured works that were placed or performed in unorthodox settings around New York City. I collaborated with artist Halsey Rodman on a sculpture that attached to the front of Guild & Greyshkul Gallery.
- Fly on the Wall*, Lot 61, New York, NY.
 Moderated by Ellen Harvey with curators Lauri Firstenburg, Shamin Momin, Jeffrey Deitch, and Zach Feuer. My work was publicly reviewed in this discussion of 20 emerging artists.
